

I am very much opposed to members of CBA whom I have a business relationship with using my information to allow them to do phone solicitation. If I want to use any of their services, I will contact the individual company personally. Unsolicited phone calls take away from my personal time with family which I already have too little of. If this is approved, it clearly is in violation of the privacy law that I have chosen to utilize to reduce unsolicited sales calls to my home.